

James E. Foust

March 9, 1925 - January 28, 2017

FOUST

James Esten was born in Cooperative Kentucky, a coal-mining camp, located in the southern mountains of Kentucky, deep in the Daniel Boone National Forest. James was the oldest of five sons. Life was hard and rugged. In his mid-teens, James joined the Civilian Conservation Corps, created by FDR during the depression. When James reached 18 years of age, he enlisted in the Army Air Corps. James shipped off to Europe where he honorably served his country in WWII. James later married and raised three children with his wife Pauline. James was a longtime employee of GE's Aircraft Engine Business. James possessed many interests and talents: expert mechanic, artist, fisherman, photography, but none exceeded his love of family. James was a man of faith in Jesus Christ, in whose presence he now lives and rests.

James is survived by his wife Pauline (nee Thompson) Foust, his children James (Annalee) Foust, Kimberly (Vaughn) Merrill and Christopher (Lindsay) Foust, grandchildren Scott (Jill), Eric (Erica), Joshua and one on the way, great grandchildren Landen, Cohen, Avery, Aliyah, Asher and Aubrielle. He was preceded in death by his parents Wesley Thomas and Nettie Jewell (nee Dabney) Foust and his brothers Walter, Noble, Edward and Winford Foust. James passed away on Saturday, January 28, 2017 at the age of 91.

Visitation will be held at Friendship Baptist Church 8580 Cheviot Rd. on Thursday, Feb. 2, 2017 from 5-7 PM. Funeral Service will be held at the church on Friday, Feb. 3, 2017 at 11 AM. Donations may be sent to Wounded Warriors.

“ Grandpa was never one to be very talkative, but looking back on family get-togethers, it is clear he was simply just taking it all in - enjoying the family. It seemed family brought a smile to his face and he just relaxed in that enjoyment.

But, I can't imagine the enjoyment he's experiencing now as heaven is scene to the greatest family get-together of all. Grandpa trusted Christ at a young age and is now surrounded by His presence.

One day, we'll be there too, so, grandpa, make sure you have the grill ready! :)

“ Those we love don't go away
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen,unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.

Hold on to your memories and let them guide you during this time of sadness.
